May 5, 2009 - Salem, NH

In an effort to raise funds to support its summer programs, the Boys & Girls Club teamed up with Barnes & Noble Booksellers by hosting a book fair at the Barnes & Noble Salem, NH store located at 125 South Broadway.

On Tuesday, May 5th, 2009 the Barnes & Noble Salem, NH store contributed a percentage of every sale made with a special book fair voucher to the Boys & Girls Club of Salem. Vouchers were available online at the Boys & Girls Club's website: www.salembgc.org, and in hard copy at the Club.

The book fair involved a Celebration of Mothers through Poetry and Art, including children from the After School Program who presented original writing and artwork at the store.

The Barnes & Noble Book Fair helped the Boys & Girls Club of Salem in several ways. First, a percentage of book fair sales underwrote some of the expenses for on-going programs. Second, a wish list of titles was created to enhance the club's own library collection. Book fair supporters chose books from an in-store wish list display to purchase for the Club's library.
